

Jennifer Haddock
PO Box 6 Woods Hole Ma 02543
508 444 1932

- Associate Professor of Nautical Science
- Captain, Marine Operations Coordinator
- Masters in Marine Affairs (University of Rhode Island)
- U.S. Coast Guard Licensed (1600 ton Ocean Master) with STCW Certifications
- Tall Ship America Board Member
- 5 years as member Tall Ships America's Ship Operations and Safety (SOS) Committee and Conference Planning Committee
- Member of the Safety Advisory Committee for The School for Field Studies
- Safety Director for an international education program
- Program Manager for Outward Bound Puerto Rico Semester
- Campaign Assistant for the National Clean Boating Campaign
- Engineering education (BSME, University of Rhode Island)

2014 Sea Education Association, Woods Hole, Massachusetts

- Associate Professor Nautical Science

1993-Present Sea Education Association, Woods Hole, Massachusetts

- Marine Operations Coordinator and Captain
- Manage crew from hiring ,training and mentoring
- Ships logistics and liaison with US Coast Guard and other agencies
- Conducted a safety audit to review program procedures on board the ships as well as on campus for both staff and students
- Teach nautical science, sail theory and marlinespike seamanship to college and high school students

1989-2006 Hurricane Island Outward Bound School, Rockland, Maine

- Course Director and Program Manager for programs in Maine and Semester Course in Puerto Rico
- Curriculum development for sailing program including tallship programs
- Senior Instructor for the sea program in Maine, Maryland and Florida, educating students, responsible for both physical safety and overall well-being up to 24 students in a remote setting.
- Skills include the ability to facilitate group activities and discussions.
- Training new instructors
- Emergency rescue boat driver and Captain for the school's 34' escort/supply boats
- Bos'n responsible for the waterfront on Hurricane Island duties include maintenance and support staff.

2002 Maine Maritime Academy

- Chief Mate aboard the Schooner Bowdoin, 90' foot schooner

- Oversaw all the day to day routine of the vessel as well as the crew of 4
- Developed programs for high school students as well as for college students at the academy

1999-2002 The School For Field Studies, Beverly, Massachusetts

- Safety Director,
- Responsible for over seeing the safety of seven international sites
- Developing staff training in house and working with outside contractors
- Reviewing all medical forms for both staff and students
- Developing and reviewing program protocols and procedures and conducting safety audits
- Worked with the Safety Committee that was made up of Board members and specialists
- Managed a budget
- Developed relationships with other programs and Universities.
- Developed handbooks and manuals for each of the programs
- Developed contacts within host countries

Education

2000 University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI- Masters in Marine Affairs program

1987-1992 University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI- B.S in Mechanical Engineering with a concentration in Ocean Studies

Other Accomplishments

- Other U.S. Coast Guard Licenses: AB Sail/Lifeboatman, Radar Observer Certified, Fire fighting Certified, FCC Radio Licensed, STCW Basic Safety Training, Bridge Resource Management
- Certifications: Wilderness First Responder (80 hour medical training), PADI Open Water Diver, Emergency Water Safety; Welding , Leave No Trace
- Cruising Club of America member
- Newport-Bermuda Double Handed Race: 3rd Place; Marion-Bermuda Race: 3rd & 2nd Place
- Presenter: Suddenly Alone: Safety at Sea, Tall Ships America Annual Conference